Re: Soudani v. Soudani, Case No.: 7:25-cv-00176-CS

Defendant's request on consent to extend time to answer or otherwise respond

Your Honor:

We as counsel for the Defendant Mout'z Soudani, Individually and as Trustee, respectfully write to request that the Defendant's time to answer or otherwise respond to the action, which is presently February 3, 2025, be adjourned to a date to be determined at the next conference, presently scheduled for February 11, 2025. We have conferred with Plaintiff's counsel concerning this request, and they courteously consent.

We make this request because, as noted at the last conference on January 24, 2025, the parties have reached a settlement in principle, and any allegations in a responsive pleading or arguments in a pre-motion letter may disrupt the status quo and impede the conclusion of the settlement of this action.

We have not previously requested to adjourn this date. And we do not anticipate that this request, if granted, will affect any other scheduled dates. We thank the Court for consideration of this request and respectfully await further instruction from the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'K. Seiss', followed by a long horizontal line extending to the right.
